1. PURPOSE
The purpose of these awards is to promote, recognise and reward excellence in coursework teaching at either undergraduate or postgraduate levels.

2. NATURE
The award recognises teachers (individuals or groups) who can demonstrate that their teaching is outstanding and positively enhances students’ learning outcomes and experiences.

Winners are announced at formal proceedings each year, and receive an award of $10,000 and Award Certificate.

Award winners are required to:

• contribute to systemic change in learning and teaching through presenting a paper and/or workshop based on their award-winning practice at university learning and teaching events; and
• support their colleagues to develop competitive nominations for teaching awards and by making their winning nominations available to intending applicants.

3. ELIGIBILITY FOR NOMINATION
Nomination is open to individuals and teams. Teams can be of any size; however, nominations may name no more than five members.

• Nominees may be full time, part time, contract or adjunct members of Macquarie University’s academic staff.
• Individual applicants must have completed a minimum of two years teaching-related employment within the University (this criterion will be waived for early career applicants). A group nomination may include one or more members who do not have the requisite number of years of teaching-related employment within the University.
• Early Career Award applicants must have no more than five years teaching experience.
• It is anticipated that nominees will be Faculty Award winners.
• Previous winners of the Award are not eligible for re-nomination within three years of receiving the award.

1 $10,000 is subject to tax if accepted in addition to salary. Alternatively, Staff can elect to have the funds made available via an internal account for up to 12-month period with no taxation incurred; however, funds must be used within a 12-month period, as no carry-over is permitted.

5. SELECTION CRITERIA

All nominees for Teaching Awards will be assessed on the evidence they provide of evaluation, innovation, leadership and scholarship in the written statement that the nominee’s contribution has for the following four criteria which will be given equal consideration by the Selection Panel:

5.1 Approaches to teaching and the support of learning that influence, motivate and inspire students to learn. This may include: fostering student development by stimulating curiosity and independence in learning; contributing to the development of students’ critical thinking skills, analytical skills and scholarly values; encouraging student engagement through the enthusiasm shown for learning and teaching; inspiring and motivating students through high-level communication, presentation and interpersonal skills; effective approaches to guidance during the planning of research projects; structures established for ongoing interaction with students.

5.2 Development of curricula, resources or services that reflect a command of the field. This may include developing and presenting coherent and imaginative resources for student learning; implementing research-led approaches to learning and teaching; demonstrating up-to-date knowledge of the field of study in the design of the curriculum and the creation of resources for learning; communicating clear objectives and expectations for student learning.

5.3 Evaluation practices that bring about improvements in teaching and learning. This may include: integrating evaluation activities with the specific aims and objectives for student learning and program improvement; providing timely, worthwhile changes to content and delivery; using a variety of evaluation and feedback strategies; implementing both formative and summative assessment; adapting teaching methods to different contexts and diverse student needs.

5.4 Innovation, leadership or scholarship that has influenced and enhanced learning and teaching and/or the student experience. This may include participating in the effective and empathetic guidance and advising of students; assisting students to participate and achieve success in their courses; influencing the overall academic, social and cultural experience of higher education.

In assessing nominations against the four criteria, the Selection Panel will consider the:

a. Extent to which the claims for excellence are supported by formal and informal evaluation;
b. Extent of creativity, imagination or innovation, irrespective of whether the approach involves traditional learning environments or technology-based developments; and
c. Information contained in student data or institutional student surveys, references, and selected teaching materials submitted by the nominee.

6. SELECTION PROCESS

6.1. Selection Panel

A Selection Panel will be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor and co-chaired by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor Academic and Pro Vice-Chancellor Learning and Teaching. Its membership will include the Chair of the Academic Senate (ex-officio), Chair of the Senate Learning and Teaching Committee (or nominee), the Strategic and Innovation Lead, Learning Innovation Hub, Associate Deans Learning and Teaching (rotates, 1 per panel), a previous winner of University and / or National Teaching Award, and a current member of the University’s student community.
